DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1-5 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Nagamura et al. (U.S. 6,292,239). Note figures 8 and 9 showing cabinet 20 consisting of frame-shaped upper case 20T and plate-shaped lower case 20B, resin frame 3 with fastening portions 12a and 12b, and screws 40 for fixing projection 20F to the liquid crystal display panel containing frame 17 with liquid crystal panel unit 1 held therein. See column 12, line 40 – column 13, line 30.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 6-10 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nagamura et al. (U.S. 6,292,239). Although Nagamura et al. does not disclose a portable data terminal or information processing equipment, using the structure of claims 1-5 in such devices was conventional at the time of invention. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to use the liquid crystal display structure of Nagamura et al. in a portable data terminal or information processing equipment because it was conventional.

Response to Arguments

The declaration filed on April 26, 2002, under 37 CFR 1.131 has been considered but is ineffective to overcome the Nagamura et al. reference. The evidence submitted is insufficient to establish diligence from a date prior to the date of reduction to practice of the Nagamura et al. reference to either a constructive reduction to practice or an actual reduction to practice. Applicant's declaration shows no action regarding the invention between November 24, 1998 and December 18, 1998 and also between December 18, 1998 and January 10, 1999.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
